

BLUE RIDGE LEDGER

NEWSLETTER OF THE

VOLUME 5, ISSUE 4

GLENDA M. ANGUS, EDITOR

DECEMBER 2016

COMMENTS FROM THE PRESIDENT

I thought my report for the last Ledger would be my last as President of Blue Ridge. This will be my last as Richard Money becomes our chapter President.

I am sure the membership has received updated information from Frank Cason on the 2017 DOAI Southeast rally held at the Lazy Days RV Resort. We are the host chapter. I think we have over 45 Blue Ridge members that will be attending.

Our 2017 Spring rally will in Hatteras, North Carolina beginning April 1, 2017. I am sure during our chapter meeting at Lazy Days, we will receive more information.

When I assumed the office of President, our chapter was going through some trying times. I want to thank all members for your confidence in me, our board of directors. Thank you, Frank Cason, for agreeing to be our rally chairman for the 2017 DOAI Southeast rally. I also want to thank Glenda for her excellent work on the Blue Ridge Ledger and Jim Pinkerton for becoming our membership director.

Thanks for your prayers during my prostate cancer treatments. I am over half way through them and the doctor said that he could not be more pleased with the results.

I hope everyone has a Merry Christmas and Happy New year. See you in Florida.

Safe travels,

Charlie Harvell

The Outer Banks Rally

Jim & Brenda Fairfax, and Richard Money met at the Outer Banks 6-8 December to check out the facilities for the spring rally to ensure a “hit.” Discover the Outer Banks Rally has now been planned and the registration form and itinerary is in the newsletter. We think we have planned a rally that will be fun-filled, and action-packed for all ... our first rally at the Outer Banks. This area of North Carolina is history-filled and there are events, including self-guided tours (lighthouses, the Wright Memorial, the Kittyhawk, and sand dunes, just to name a few). Everyone should try to plan one day to take the ferry to Ocracoke Island for a unique experience. Various games will be available onsite during the duration of the rally. We are looking forward to seeing all of you!

2017 DOAI SE Region Rally

LAZYDAYS RV RESORT, SEFFNER, FLORIDA

Our Pot Luck dinner for the Lazy Days Rally will be on Tuesday Evening. We are asking Blue Ridge Discoverys to sign up to bring the meats. Please plan servings for 10, which would be 6 lbs. of boneless meat (beef, pork or chicken), or 8 lbs. of bone-in. You may let Margaret Ellen (wareaglemom1@gmail.com) know in advance what you plan to bring, or sign up at the registration tables at the Rally. PLEASE COME BY THE POT LUCK REGISTRATION TABLE, even if you have sent what you are bringing. We will be confirming your dish and asking each participant to bring the recipe for their dish (recipe cards will be provided and an info sheet will be given.) We will be setting up the buffet tables as one LONG table, with service from both sides, so if you can provide 2 serving utensils for your meat that would be very helpful. We are trying to keep our members informed, so if others have questions, you'll be prepared to answer. Looking forward to seeing you in January!

Margaret Ellen
Pot Luck Dinner chair

First off, I would like to thank you for committing to attend the 2017 DOAI SE Region Rally and Camp Discovery at Lazy Days RV Park, Seffner, Florida. Our theme for the rally is "Beach Party". So plan on having an awesome time.

We have a fun filled week of activities planned. Registration will began at 1 pm on January 22. During the registration process you will receive your name tags and will be able to sign up for Golf, your dish for the pot luck meal on Tuesday night, Pet Parade and Easy Meals for the busy Traveler by Jorie Salomon. There will be a $15.00 charge for this seminar and will be limited to the first 25 that signs up. During the registration you will be able to pick up the Camp Discovery Notebook, if you ordered one. Limited quantities will be available for $17.00, should you need a copy.

As far as the Pot Luck/Covered Dish meal, your host the Blue Ridge Discoverys will provide all the meat. So just think of your best covered dish to bring. Make sure you sign the Pot Luck sheet with the name of your dish. Recipe cards will be provide for you to fill out. Plates, napkins and plastic wear will be provided.

We have five meals planned with entertainment schedule for three of these meals. We have a movie night on the schedule with popcorn. On Sunday night after the meal, we will have "The Family Feud Game Show". This show will be Professionally run by a Host. Each chapter should put together one or more five person teams. The winner of the 2016 Rally was the Blue Ridge Discoverys, so who will be our challengers and try to eliminate the champs.

Now, if you know other members of your chapter that have not registered, they must do this between now and December 22. They must call Lazy Days at 800- 905-6627 to make their reservations. We have the space available for 15 or more coaches.

Make it yourself

Many of you probably experience the same roof drain problem that I do. The little drip rail extenders I got from Camping World just aren't long enough to direct the water away from the coach surface or the drivers mirror. I know some have used clothes pins but you have to use a ladder to install them and at our age we sometimes forget to remove them and they fall off as we go down the road. I took some plastic art paint spatulas (photo attached) that I got at Hobby Lobby and modified it a little by grinding a little off the handle so the water flows down to the end. I painted them to match trim color using plastics paint. Then I drilled a hole in it and the drop rail extensions, used a stainless steel screw and self locking nut to permanently mount them (picture attached). Even if a tree branch contacts them you can just use your awning wand or cleaning brush handle to move it back in place once you are parked.

Sick Bay

Margaret Ellen is recovering from surgery and doing well. Thank you for letting us know.—7 Dec 2016

Greetings, Family & Friends;

The good news is I'll NEVER have another mammogram!! The 'other' news is, I'll be saying "Good-bye" to 'The Girls' on Wednesday.

I AM BLESSED, however! My diagnosis is 'Stage Zero', which means what is found remains contained in the duct. My treatment options were: 1. Lumpectomy, followed by radiation (NO, thank you!), or 2. Complete mastectomy, with or without reconstruction (3 options for re-con). My decision: I'll have the Big "M", and with my family history, "Make it a double"! Yes, I also had genetic testing.

This process has taken WEEKS!! (7) As is obvious, I have chosen to keep this very private during the process of diagnosis, treatment decisions, scheduling, and waiting. I hope you understand.

As I said earlier, I am Very blessed. Yes, cancer invaded my body, but we caught it as it stepped in. I am able to decide everything about my treatment and have a decent option, considering. While yes, I guess now I'll be considered a "Cancer Survivor", I really feel I have a completely different (much lesser) disease than most others. I only go through one surgery, plus the post-op stuff. NO chemo OR radiation to rack my body!

I have chosen the treatment options that will have the shortest recovery time, with the least invasion of the rest of my body. Yes, "The Girls" will come back (ha!) in another form of puberty, I guess! :-)

As confident as I am, I figure there will surely be some difficult days ahead. I'd love having your prayers embracing us. Yes, our adult children will 'tag-team' being with us. While there are many I love and care about, with whom my contact is primarily Facebook, I choose not to post this there. However, I no longer consider it a "private matter". It is just impossible to get to everyone at the same time. I hope you'll help me out here.

I'll see many of you soon, at Wesley UMC, on the pickle ball courts, streets of Augusta, and RV stops in the region in the weeks/months ahead! YES, we'll get to go to Tally for Christmas (thanks to our children), and make our winter trip to South Florida in January.

We count our blessings and are so thankful for all of you who help make our lives complete.

Love you all bunches!

Margaret Ellen

A loss in the family ... our 4-legged family member, Maximus, is no longer with us ... telling you now so no one asked and the healing can continue. We had to put him down on November 14 due to an accident at a boarding facility in NC. Our hearts are still heavy!

* Continue to keep Jim Fairfax on your prayer list for his knee. He is still spending time at the gym attempting to get range of motion in the knee from surgery two years ago, and now the other knee is bothering him ... prayers needed.
(Brenda Fairfax)

Please keep Jim Weinberg in your prayers. Larry & Mary Ann Weinberg's son is hospitalized and has had more than one stroke. The doctors do not know what the problem is yet.

Dick Pryor who is having heart surgery on 20 December needs your prayers.

Keep Charlie Harvell and Kerry Pinkerton who are fighting cancer, in your thoughts also.

Any other member needing prayers

This & That

Brenda Fairfax had ambitions of completing her doctorate in December 2016, but there is light in the tunnel that she can see. Interviews for the study are almost complete with four remaining in December. All work will be completed no later than February 2017, and the future Dr. Brenda Fairfax, Lord's willing, will march across the stage on June 16, 2017.

Please let me know if you have any problems with the web page. The service I use is transitioning to a new version and procedure (and of course cost) so all the Web Pages I administer for Blue Ridge and the Historical Society, etc., are experiencing problems. The "Members Only" page quit working for several hours but was back up yesterday afternoon. Unfortunately, I'm told I have to live with the changes even if I don't go to the new version—which of course it is not ready for use yet. I have posted the Michigan photos and attempted to add those for Bath, New York. Unfortunately, wasn't able to get those on and was advised to try again today.

Have a wonderful Christmas and we hope to see you all at Lazy Days in January. (Glenda)

FOR THE COOK

Frank's Potato Salad (6-8 Servings)

4 ea Medium potatoes cubed (I normally use Yukon Gold or red skinned potatoes)
4 ea Hard boiled eggs
1 ea Medium onion diced (I use sweet Vidalia onions when available)
2 ea 16oz Chicken Broth (Use what you need to cover the potatoes)
4 tbs Pickle Relish (or add more for your taste)
Salt & Pepper to your taste
Hellmann's Mayonnaise (I use enough to give a good coating on the potatoes)
Paprika as needed for garnish

Boil the potatoes in the chicken broth until they are cooked a little al dente, but not at the mushy stage

Drain potatoes and let them cool

Dice three of the eggs and slice the 4th to lay on top of the salad as garnish

Once potatoes have drained and cooled, mix eggs, pickles, onions & mayo

Add sliced egg to top of salad and garnish with Paprika
