PRESIDENT'S REPORT

With our newsletter editor, MaryAnne Weinberg, suffering in the cool weather in the Maritime Provinces of Canada, with limited or no internet, you are stuck with me doing the newsletter again.

Alice and I are getting ready to go to the rally in Lancaster, PA. We are looking forward to seeing everyone. This is going to be a great rally. There are a good number of members and guests attending and our hosts, the Zilinski's and Blackwell's, have a lot planned.

There have been a few changes in our roster again, so I have attached a new one to the newsletter. Please look at it and check your information and if it needs changes, let me know.

I have been toying with the idea of having a rolling rally out to the DOAI National rally in the Amana Colonies, Iowa. This is something we may do just to meet somewhere near Amana Colonies so we can enter the rally together or travel totally or part of the way gathering members as we go. Give it some thought let me know, we'll see what we can do.

Hope to see you on the road or at a rally

Safe Travels.

HUMOR

Husband's and Wife's diaries.....

Wife's Diary:

Tonight, I thought Bob was acting weird. We had made plans to meet at a nice restaurant for dinner.

I was shopping with my friends all day long; and I was a little late for our "date."

Conversation wasn't flowing, so I thought he was upset at the fact that I was a bit late; but he made no comment on it.

So I suggested that we go somewhere quiet so we could talk. He agreed, but he didn't say much. I asked him what was wrong;

He said, 'Nothing.' I asked him if it was my fault that he was upset.

He said he wasn't upset, that it had nothing to do with me, and not to worry about it.

On the way home, I told him that I loved him. He smiled slightly, and kept driving.

I can't explain his behavior I don't know why he didn't say, 'I love you, too.'

When we got home, I felt as if I had lost him completely, as if he wanted nothing to do with me anymore.

He just sat there quietly, and watched TV.

He continued to seem distant and absent.

Finally, with silence all around us, I decided to go to bed. About 15 minutes later, he came to bed.

But I still felt that he was distracted, and his thoughts were somewhere else.

He fell asleep - I cried. I don't know what to do. I'm almost sure that his thoughts are with someone else.

My life is a disaster.

Husband's Diary:

Boat wouldn't start, can't figure it out.
